

“Closing the gender pay gap in public services: Unions’ actions”

14 January 2021 - (14 :30 – 17 :00 CET)

Online: Zoom platform

Languages: EN, FR, DE, ES, IT, HU, SK (TBC)

14:30 – 14:40: Opening remarks

- Gloria Mills, Chair of EPSU Women’s committee
- Sian Moore, University of Greenwich

14:40 – 15:40: Presentation of key findings from the research “Closing the gender pay gap in public services” - Examples from key studies

- Collective Bargaining, Equal Pay Legislation and the Gender Pay Gap during austerity Sian Moore, University of Greenwich
- Women and labour market equality in Southern Europe: the impact of austerity measures and recent gains in closing the gender pay gap”, Margherita Roiatti and Claudia Carchio, Fondazione ADAPT
- “From the fight for pay raise without gender to open articulation of women’s demands in Central European countries”, Barbora Holubová, Central European Labour Studies Institute (CELSI)

Discussion

15:40 – 15:50: Break

15:50 – 16:45: Political roundtable: the role of the gender pay transparency directive to close the gender pay gap

Session introduced and moderated by: Gloria Mills, EPSU Women’s committee

- Karen Vandekerckhove, Head of Unit, Gender Equality, European Commission (TBC)
- Esther Lynch, ETUC Deputy Secretary General
- Guillaume Afellat, SGI Europe Policy Advisor

Discussion

16:50 – 17:00: Closing

With the support of the European Commission