

Unions reject government's plan to block pay rise

 Croatia

Unions representing public service workers have made clear that they do not accept the government's proposal to suspend this year's pay increases, along with Christmas and other bonuses. Two pay increases are due to be paid this year, both of 2% in June and October. EPSU issued a statement supporting the unions' position and criticising the government for pushing for a pay freeze for workers on the frontline of the fight against the pandemic.
