

Civil service union to ballot over further industrial action

 U.K.

PCS, the main civil service union, is to ballot its 270,000 civil service members over further industrial action over jobs and pay. This follows an extensive consultation exercise by the union which found many members will to take further action to defend jobs and win real increases in pay. The union has already organised national strike action this year in protest at the government's "efficiency" proposals.
